FRIDAY, DEC. 7, 1906.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

4,205

The weekly payment is "up to" Governor Proctor.

The Vermont court of claims is a costly baffle, at any rate.

"We are seven"—Senators opposed to workmen getting their pay when they earn it.

The Vermont woman who had two husbands at the same time and didn't know it, certainly did not have to pay the bill.

If the Bennington county criminals will wait patiently they will perhaps soon have a state's attorney to invite them into the law's embrace.

The new battleship Vermont on speed is a hummer. May she never use that speed to show her heels to an enemy except in cases of direct necessity.

Inasmuch as it costs the state of Vermont something like $1,000 a day to keep the legislature in session, just as many days as can be consistently slipped off the session will be agreeable to the people of the state, thanks.

It is certainly proper for the country to demand what information is can get regarding the alleged ill-treatment of Japanese in San Francisco. Let the Californians drop their hysteria for a time and give us their side of the contention in a candid manner.

The State House at Montpelier will remain in statu quo, in view of the fact that the legislature sees fit not to appropriate money for its enlargement. The time is present, however, when more room should be furnished for state officials. The edifice is crowded to the utmost, especially when towns persist in sending such men as Ed. Finn of Springfield to the legislature.

Speaker Cheney of the Vermont House of Representatives is reported to have said in one of his wonted periods of enthusiasm: "I'm going to the depot Friday with a gun and get after any member who tries to go home Friday. There's no use of talking, we've got to remain and work." We feel confident that Speaker Cheney bagged a lot of this kind of game if he went out with the gun.

A VERMONT HONOR LIST.

Vermont now has fourteen living ex-governors. The list is as follows: Frederick Holbrook of Brattleboro, John W. Stewart of Middlebury, Redfield Proctor of Proctor, John L. Barstow of Shelburne, Samuel E. Pingree of White River Junction, Ebenezer J. Ormsbee of Brandon, William P. Dillingham of Montpelier, Carroll S. Page of Hyde Park, Urban A. Woodbury of Burlington, Josiah Groot of Newport, Edward C. Smith of St. Albans City, William W. Stickney of Ludlow, John G. McCullough of Bennington, and Charles J. Bell of Walden. May the list remain unbroken for a long time to come.

THE CONVENIENCE OF THE PUBLIC OR THE OFFICIALS?

The advent of winter with its accompanying snows and blows has brought out a discussion in various cities of the state. The discussion is about the plowing out of sidewalks. Barre is not alone in the throes of pros and cons over the matter, it seems. Down to the progressive town of Brattleboro the wave of discussion has been wafted from Barre, and criticism has arisen over the dilatoriness of public servants in getting the beautiful, flimsy substance off the sidewalks. A similar complaint comes to the surface in that breeding bed of politics, Rutland. Objection was raised at a recent meeting of the Rutland city

You'll need 'em this weather and we hope you will. We bought 'em to sell and should feel awfully disappointed if you didn't need them. We know every leg will be satisfied, as they are made just as they should be.

EAST MONTPELIER.

Mrs. Philip LaPoint is reported quite ill. Fred Townsend is building a slaughter house on his land back of the village.

The severe cold during the first of the week caused some trouble with water pipes.

Herbert Kelton is having quite a lot of repairing, papering and painting done to his house.

There is no regular caretaker for the hall at present, one of the directors doing the work.

Mrs. Jessie Willard went to Montpelier last Monday to work in the home of Dr. Babee.

Kate Wheeler is at home for a while from her work in Montpelier, while the office is being repaired.

George Vincent, now of Plainfield, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday, preparing for M. E. Howland.

H. M. Farnham was in Northfield on Tuesday and in South Ryegate and Grotton on Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelton of Montpelier came with ex-Governor Bell to attend grange Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Cushman returned to her home in Massachusetts Wednesday morning after a visit with her niece, Mrs. Harry Vincent.

The schools in town began again last Monday with many of the same teachers as last year. There are new teachers in the Cutler district and at the Center.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham are planning to attend the state grange, to be held in Burlington next week. A few others are talking of going.

A young man who said he was John Hill of Stratford, N. H., and was on his way home from four years in the Klondike, which he left last August, had worked his way so far, and after working three days for M. E. Howland, started for home Wednesday.

A very pleasant surprise was given the grange Wednesday evening in a visit from ex-Governor Bell, who is also state master of the grange. After the regular program of music by the grange choir, with Mrs. Harry Vincent pianist, readings and discussion of which is the most profitable for the farmer, to sell his milk, make butter or take milk to the creamery, each way having lively advocates, all listened with much interest and pleasure to an informal talk by ex-Governor Bell on several subjects, including his recent trip to the national grange at Denver, his visit with his staff to the various institutions and large state industries, and a plea for loyalty to the state and grange, which will be of great help to the farmers in the near future.

I am showing the largest stock in Central Vermont and the most desirable line in the State. You get the same value here as elsewhere and save one-third of your money. THERE'S Everlasting Satisfaction

IN WEARING THE KIND OF FURS THAT WE SELL

Go through our stock and you'll find they come off pretty aristocratic animals. While they may not wear any better than some others they have got the appearance, and that counts with the well-dressed woman—should count with any woman—for the money consideration is very little different than those kinds that make you wonder why your Fur doesn't look as well as your sister's.

Just because every beaver knows how to build a dam and every fox how to bark is no sign one pelt is as good as another.

It is not necessary to have $2,000 before making a deposit, but amounts from $1.00 up are received. All depositors are welcome and receive equal courtesy.
